

Wim, Wim, Wobble-O

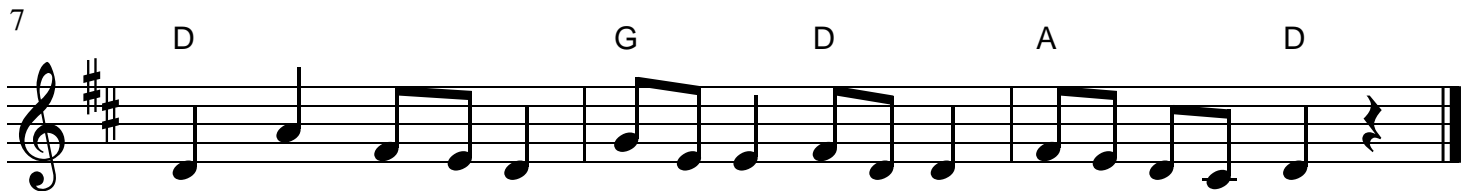

The Foolish Boy

My fa - ther died I don't know how, he left _ me six hor _ ses to fol _ low the plough _ With a wim, wim, wob-ble O,

Strim, Strim, Strob-ble O, Bub-ble O, pre-tty boy, o _ ver the brow.

2. I sold the horses and bought me a cow,
But how for to milk her I didn't know how.

3. So I sold the cow and bought me a calf,
I never made a bargain but I lost the better half.

4. I sold my calf and bought me a pig,
The poor little thing it never grew big.

5. I sold my pig and bought me a hen,
To lay me an egg every now and then.

6. I sold that hen and bought me a cat,
The pretty little creature by the chimney corner sat.

7. I sold the cat and bought a mouse,
It set fire to its tail and it burnt down the house.

8. I sold my mouse and bought me a mole,
Darned old thing went straight down its hole!
